

Congress of the United States
Washington, DC 20515

January 25, 2022

President Joseph Biden
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Ave NW
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. President:

In the last few days, the Saudi-led coalition in Yemen has further intensified its strikes on civilian targets, including a migrant detention center and telecommunications facilities, killing over 70 and injuring over 100 noncombatants.

The aircraft conducting these strikes, which cause untold suffering, undermine U.S. interests, and defy years of American entreaties, are sustained and kept flying under a contract approved by the United States government.

Please suspend this contract.

Sincerely,

Tom Malinowski
